AVEDEX TRENDING BOT

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "Awesome Web Browser" with the URL <https://www.avedex.cc>. The browser interface includes a terminal window showing command-line activity and a sidebar with various icons. The main content area displays a token page for a token named "Ave". A prominent red watermark "t.me/kthenurseone" is overlaid across the center of the page. On the right side of the page, there is a "Pool Info" section with a scrollable log of activity. An orange arrow points from the text below to the log area.
